VITAPHONE ALL READY FOR SERVICE

TO OPEN SUNDAY NIGHT SHOWING DOLORES COSTELLO IN "TENDERLOIN"

Workmen have finished the installation of a Vitaphone or talking motion picture apparatus in the Grayling Opera House, the name of which is now changed to the Rialto Theatre. The opening production will be given Sunday night and continue for three nights showing Dolores Costello in "Tenderloin."

This remarkable apparatus will afford the theatre-going public of this community with the very highest type of talking movie entertainment. No other theatre in Northern Michigan is equipped with this apparatus. Productions that may be expected to be seen in Detroit, Saginaw, Bay City and other large cities may now be witnessed right here at home in Grayling.

The Vitaphone is no experiment and the productions are given in a manner that almost defies the public to know whether or not they are seeing and hearing genuine dramas with real people on the stage. The sound discs are coupled with movie films in such a manner that the speaking parts are in exact unison with the pictures. The sounds are reproduced and made audible thru amplifiers that are located two on each side of the screen. The sounds are clear and accurate and in every way equal in volume to the human voice. Much credit features with the pictures also accompany the productions which in many cases, provide complete orchestral accompaniments. High class theatrical productions are now possible at Jean Brady, Virginia Peterson, Nat. the Rialto. Programs that are possible in the metropolitan theatres are now offered to the patrons of the via Hewitt.

The tidy sum of $8,000 is the cost of the Vitaphone apparatus. It is Jane Keyport, Ann Hanson, Agnes going to take a lot of patronage at Hanson, Oma Lozon. The Village Council has passed an order declaring Day-Light Saving Time, beginning Saturday Night, April 27th.

In accordance with these orders the people of Grayling are requested to move their clocks ahead one hour on Saturday Night, April 27th.

BIG CROWD ENJOYS CUPID UP-TO-DATE

Plays in which our home people take part are always specially enjoyable. Cupid Up-To-Date that was given at the High school auditorium last week Friday night was no exception.

It was a three-act musical comedy and was presented very cleverly. In spite of the fact that the cast had but one week to learn their parts they did exceptionally well, and all parts were well taken.

Besides the members of the cast, the names of whom were published last week there was a large ensemble in dancing and singing numbers. They were as follows:

GOVERNOR GREEN REPLIES

In a recent issue of the Avalanche we published editorially an article telling about the appointment of A. B. Cook by the Department of Conservation to the office of superintendent of fish hatcheries. Mr. Cook was a teacher in the schools of Ionia and so far as we could learn had no knowledge of fish culture. We questioned the wisdom of such an appointment. Governor Green has replied to the article and we are pleased to publish it. It reads as follows:

April 19, 1929.

Mr. O. P. Schumann,
Grayling, Michigan.
Dear Mr. Schumann:

Your editorial entitled, "What does Cook know about fish hatching?" has been called to my attention, and having confidence in your desire to be fair in this matter I want to give you the reason for the employment of Mr. Cook.

I have found through many years of experience as the manager of a number of factories that there is one quality that is essential in any man who is to take a position of authority. A man may have education; he may have a knowledge of the work, but unless he is an executive by nature, because I do not believe that quality can be taught—I am doubtful of his being a success. We needed a man at the head of the fish department. We tried to secure a trained man from Washington. We were not successful. We could not pay the salaries that are necessary to tempt these men. We looked about our own State, and new cars to the following persons: we looked in other States, and finally Emil Kraus, 4-door Hudson Town decided to do what I have done in cedar, Jerry Sherman, Essex coupe; my own business a great many times. A. S. Burrows, Essex sedan.

We selected Mr. Cook because he was an executive. By handling of the military company and other enterprises, about which I was familiar, proved conclusively to me that he was a leader and that he was an executive. Starting with this we have sent him to a number of other states for study. He is a college graduate; has attendance at the wild life show in Detroit, and also enthusiasm for the work. He is not trained in fish culture, but for many months has been the exhibit. Next week he will be pursuing an extensive study. When he familiarizes himself with the practical side of the work I feel that Michigan will have an A-1 man. We will have a man who will be trained in our work, who will not enter upon his job with a whole lot of pre-conceived notions that are a handicap to so many men who are called upon for work of this kind. We will also have the advantage from a salary point of view.

Mr. Cook is not only an able man but one possessed with a great deal of good sense. I recall that four generations of Cooks have been raised on the same farm in Shiawasseo County from which this boy comes. I appreciate the fact that a great many people will take your viewpoint in this matter and that it is going to be difficult for Mr. Cook to establish himself, at the same time I feel that he will be able to do so.

Trusting that our course will finally meet with your approval, I am sincerely yours,

Fred W. Green.

John says they are looking for a good fishing season this year.

The home of Clayton Strachely, which is one of the nicest residences in Grayling and the former home of the J. C. Burton family was gutted by fire at about nine o'clock last Sunday morning. The entire upper part of the building together with its contents were destroyed, the fire starting from a spark that lit on the roof from one of the chimneys. Everything was pretty dry and with a brisk wind blowing it looked like next to impossible to save the building, however the firemen did heroic work and soon had the fire under control. The loss was fully covered by insurance. Luckily a house across the road from the Strachelys was vacant and the family moved in until such time as their home is put in shape.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Congress Is Struggling With Farm Relief and Tariff Change Problems.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

CONGRESS, which met in extraordinary session at the beginning of the week, is struggling with the problem of farm relief, for the solution of which mainly it was called to Washington by President Hoover. On the first day the usual process of organization was carried out, Nicholas Longworth being re-elected speaker of the house and Vice President Curtis taking his place as presiding officer of the senate.

Possibly for the purpose of avoiding any objections to the seating of De Priest and Michaelson of Illinois, Mr. Longworth swore in all the new members of the house at one time. De Priest, colored, was under indictment for months as a member of a gambling ring, but the case was dropped recently. Michaelson was indicted in Florida on charges of smuggling liquor into the country. The administration's farm relief measure was promptly introduced by Representative Gilbert N. Haugen of Iowa and the next day it was approved by the new committee on agriculture by a vote of 19 to 2.

Tuesday President Hoover's message was read to congress. It was brief and business-like, as might have been expected, but did not meet with unanimous approval. Some of Mr. Hoover's supporters in the campaign were decidedly disappointed in his handling of the farmers' problem, these including Senators Capper, Brookhart and Norbeck. The President recommended legislation covering eight matters, as follows:

Creation of a federal farm board, an enormous revolving fund and other machinery for stabilizing agriculture on a basis more profitable to the farmers.

Limited revision of the tariff to increase the protection of the farmers and to furnish adequate protection to those industries in which changed economic conditions have produced slackened activity and lessened employment.

Reorganization of the tariff commission and of its method of operation. Provision for domestic valuation of imports in cases of foreign undervaluation.

Provision for the taking of the census of 1930.

Reapportionment of representatives in congress.

Suspension of the national origins immigration restriction system.

"Minor" administrative authorizations, possibly including the transfer of prohibition enforcement to the Department of Justice.

The control of farm production and improvement of marketing by Mr. Hoover's plan, as embodied in the bill before the house, would be committed to the supervision of a federal farm board which would use a government revolving fund to finance farmer-controlled cooperatives and associations.

The President is known to be opposed to the export decontrol plan though he made no mention of it in his message. The scheme was offered in the senate's bill for agricultural relief, which varied in other respects from the house measure.

Concerning the tariff changes the message was rather vague. It said congress should be careful not to make alterations that would impair our export trade or cause retaliation by other nations. The President's recommendation that the national origins immigration restriction system be suspended probably will meet with more opposition in congress than any other of his suggestions.

POLICIES of the federal reserve board which affected stock market activities by restricting the amount of money for speculation were attacked in the house by Frank B. Reid of Illinois and Loring M. Black of New York. Representative Reid offered a resolution for appointment of a committee of one to investigate the administration of the federal reserve system, suggesting that the board might have been unduly subject to foreign influences.

Representative Black defended speculative activities on the New York Stock exchange and insisted there was no occasion for alarm on account of the greatly expanded operations there.

He asserted that the federal reserve board was injuring business generally by attempting to curb speculation. The board, according to Mr. Black, is exceeding its powers under the law.

A APPOINTMENT of Charles G. Jones as ambassador to Great Britain was confirmed by the senate without roll call. Other Presidential nominations were those of Joseph M. Dixon of Montana to be first assistant secretary of the interior; Oscar B. Colquitt of Texas as a member of the board of mediation; John M. Morris of Pennsylvania as member of the United States employees' compensation commission; Patrick J. Hurley, assistant secretary of war; Ernest L. Jahncke and David S. Ingalls, assistant secretaries of the navy; Capt. Joseph J. Chentrum, paymaster-general of the navy with the rank of rear admiral; and Maj. Gen. Charles McK. Sultman (retired), member of the federal radio commission, and Charles J. Krouskis, commissioner of Indian affairs.

WET members of congress lost no time in getting into action along their favorite lines. On the first day of the session a lot of bills and resolutions were introduced in the house designed to repeal or weaken the prohibition legislation, and others were offered on succeeding days. Of course not one of these measures stands any chance of being considered by this session.

Wisconsin's lower house, obeying the mandate of the referendum, voted to repeal the state prohibition act and to wipe out the state prohibition commission, and hurried the measure on to the senate. The bill takes the Badger state out of prohibition enforcement, but leaves the matter open with municipalities. Cities and villages can adopt any regulatory or prohibitory ordinances they see fit. If they want to they can adopt the abandoned state dry code as their own, but effective only within their own borders.

Washington's reply to Canada's protest against the sinking of the sunken liner I.M. Alton in the Gulf of Mexico by a coast guard vessel was delivered to the Canadian legation. Its contents were not made public, but it was understood to be conciliatory and designed to confine the dispute to legal aspects of the case. The issue may have to be determined by arbitration.

HARRY F. SINCLAIR, seeking to avoid imprisonment for contempt of the senate, has asked the Supreme court of the United States to reconsider its recent decision upholding his sentence. Meanwhile it is reported that he has lost control of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation and that his place as chairman of the board may be given to Col. H. W. Stewart, whom John D. Rockefeller ousted from the chairmanship of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana. The Sinclair company is said to be dominated now by a new group of financiers.

R USSIA, supported by Germany and Turkey, again presented to the League of Nations preparatory disarmament commission her plan for the immediate reduction of armaments. But France and Japan attacked the scheme as impractical, the other delegations were unfriendly, and the composition varied against it.

The Soviet plan provided for reducing armaments one-half, one-third or a fourth, according to the present military strength and various categories of the countries. It would establish definite figures on the number of effectives and the amount of material for the armies, navies and air forces, as against the conservative idea of merely seeking an agreement on broad general lines as recommendations for some future plenary disument conference which should fix the amounts and numbers and all in all the details and particularities.

H. G. WELLS, the noted English novelist and publicist, addressing the German reliefs in Berlin, gave utterance to a grim prophecy

He said: "Our world is marching on to a new war, into which we will fall headlong as we did in 1914 unless we start to work systematically for peace.

The chief danger is connected with Russia, which, through compulsory isolation, is becoming a country of inwardly concentrated patriotism which is likely to lead to a tremendous struggle between Russia and the western powers. The Russians will call it a battle against western capitalism, but it will be more than that. War may break out in Asia or elsewhere, but it will spread all over the world in a useless and gigantic war."

Spring Showing of General Motors Cars.

This week, throughout America, the public is viewing the newest models of General Motors products. Check and mail the coupon below. It will bring this Spring Showing into your own home.

CHEVROLET — Last year the public bought more than 1,000,000 Chevrolets. This enabled Chevrolet and General Motors to effect one of the most remarkable feats in industrial history: almost overnight, Chevrolet was changed from a 4-cylinder car to a 6 in the price range of the four. The new Chevrolet Six is new in every respect—smoother, more powerful and luxurious bodies by Fisher. 7 models—$525 to $725

OAKLAND — General Motors' policy of continuous improvement nowhere more noticeable than in the new models of the Oakland All-American Six. The distinctive art and advanced engineering principle which Oakland represents has made it a center of great public interest; it attracts all shows. All-American it name, the new Oakland is All-American in its qualities of speed, power and endurance. Fisher makes the bodies. 8 models—$1145 to $1375

BUICK — This famous member of the General Motors family, year after year, has given increasing value. Over 2,000,000 Buicks have been built and sold and of this total 1,500,000 are still serving their owners. The new Silver Anniversary Buick, with masterpiece bodies by Fisher, comes in three wheelbase lengths. All are powered by the Buick Valve-in-Head engine, which is vibrationless beyond belief. 19 models—$1950 to $2145

PONTIAC — Since General Motors introduced the Pontiac three years ago, its sales have practically doubled each year. Now General Motors offers, in the new Pontiac, a "Big Six," at the same base price. It has big-car power, big-car performance and big-car luxury in the bodies by Fisher. It is appealing particularly to families which are "stepping up" in car ownership. 7 models—$745 to $895

VIKING — There was demand for an 8-cylinder car of General Motors quality in the medium price field. General Motors chose Oldsmobile to design and build the new car, and three years were spent in its development and test. The result was revealed last month in the Viking, the latest member of the General Motors family. Viking has the world-famous 90-degree V-type engine and Fisher's newest creations in bodies. 3 models—$1595

LA SALLE — When General Motors introduced LaSalle two years ago, its sporty style which was widely copied both in America and Europe. The new models are as distinguished as the first. Built by Cadillac, LaSalle enjoys the same mechanical excellence: 90-degree V-type engine of 8 cylinders, transmission that permits gear shifting without noise or clashing at any speed. The bodies, by Fisher and Fleetwood, offer a choice of colors to express individuality. 14 models—$2295 to $4900

OLDSMOBILE — General Motors took this long-established car and remade it to provide a fine car at low price. Last year the value of Oldsmobile was so marked that the public bought over 50 per cent more than they did before. The new Oldsmobile models, with bodies by Fisher, offer still further improvements—and the prices have been reduced! Oldsmobile also has new Special and De Luxe models, with extra features, at slightly higher prices. 7 models—$875 to $1035

LITTLE MEN

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

Every man, if he had his own way, would choose to be tall and commanding in figure. It takes a courageous author to cast his hero in the role of an insignificant appearing person. Broad shoulders, heads towering above the crowd, and physical giants in general have always been in favor. It is the little, wizened man who takes the significant role.

Men have tried in many ways physically to impress their compunctions. Long-tailed coats, high heels, high hats, and high manners have all had their day—in an attempt to camouflage a lack of size and to give a false impression of height... I suppose it was some such purpose as this which led to the designing of french heels and silk hats for certainly the first is not comfortable nor the second beautiful.

Many great men have been physically small, and most of them have been sensitive as to their size, and have attempted in one way or another to conceal their physical deficiencies. I imagine Napoleon swaggered. Practically all the pictures I have ever seen of him show him in dignified, almost pompous position. He is alone on St. Helena; he stands at a distance from men of greater stature when he reviews his army. He avoids consciousness, I have no doubt, the contrast of men of greater stature. Most little men whom I have known so try to conceal their smallness of stature as to emphasize it. They are conscious of their physical deficiency and by excessive dignity make everyone they meet aware of it.

There was Mills, for instance, scarcely five feet high. Had he taken his lack of height as a matter of course, or had he admitted to himself that nature had done him a burlesque turn in cutting off ten inches or a foot from his normal size, his pride would have given little consternation to his condition excepting possibly causally to notice it and then at once to forget the fact. But Mills wore high hats and high heels. He would walk into a room with his shoulders thrown back and his chest out as if he were Goliath going out to battle. He always suggested a little bantam rooster ready for a fight. His entrance always created a tinkle of laughter, or a knowing smile to spread over the faces of those present. His excess of dignity tended to make him ridiculous rather than to impress people with his importance.

Physical size really counts for much less than small people think. We expect more of a big man than of one undersized. His failure to meet a situation awakens more comment than when an undersized individual fails to come up to the mark. If Goliath had not been so great we should not have given David so much credit for putting an end to him, and David at that time was only a slender, underdeveloped boy. If the little man would not assume excessive dignity his under size might be an asset rather than a handicap.

"I wash, iron and carry coal and don't get tired since taking Vinol. Also, I gained 18 pounds."—Mrs. S. Curtis.

Vinol is a delicious compound of cod liver, peptone, iron, etc. Nervously tired, anemic people are surprised how Vinol gives new pep, sound sleep and a BIG appetite. The very FIRST bottle often adds several pounds weight to thin children or adults. Tastes delicious.

Give these energetic seeds
a chance in your garden

ENERGETIC seeds take no more digging, or raking, or caring for in a garden, than seeds that are not so full of the spirit to live. But think of the difference at harvest time! The energetic seeds withstand disease better — grow better and stronger — produce more vigorously and more abundantly.

The Ferry's Seeds that you can buy today at the "store-around-the-corner" are surprisingly energetic. What is more, they are fresh. What is most important, they are purebred! These Ferry's Seeds came from plants that measured up to the Ferry standard in size, color, flavor, productivity — plants that have handed their inheritance on.

They are pedigree seeds! — in the strict sense you mean when you say a race-horse is pedigree. Their parents, grandparents, great-grandparents — all were of fine true stock, without an inferior strain. Doesn't this mean something to your garden? Send for the Ferry's Seed Annual to plan what you want. Remember that Ferry makes thousands of tests a year to determine the trueness of every seed you now can spill into your hand from a bright Ferry packet. Garden facts in the Annual make it far more than a catalog. Address D. M. Ferry & Co., Dept. H., Detroit, Michigan.

NEW STEWART 4-TON HAS UNIQUE 12 SPEED TRANSMISSIONInside Information

Among improvements announced on new 1929 Stewart Trucks is the multiple speed auxiliary transmission on the Model 22X-6 cylinder 4-ton truck.

A range of 12 speeds forward and 3 reverse in the transmission is accomplished by the use of an auxiliary 3-speed transmission mounted amidship, having a step-up and step-down gear which, when used in connection with the 4-speed regular transmission produces a wide range of speeds.

The gear ratios in the standard transmission are: low 6.51, 2nd 3.71, 3rd 1.9-1 and 4th 1.1.

In the auxiliary transmission the step-up gear ratio is .67-1. With a rear axle ratio of 10.3-1 the following gear ratios are obtainable: low 4.5-1, 2nd 25-4.1, 3rd 13.7-1, 4th 7-1 and reverse 54-1.

The step-down gear ratio is 2.25-1.

That makes the total gear ratio as follows: Low 151-1, 2nd 66-1, 3rd 45-1, 4th 23-1 and reverse 50-1.

With such a flexible range of gear ratios this 4-ton Stewart is ideal for 1 egg to hold the chopped meat to dump work, sand and gravel pit work together. Fine dry bread crumbs and as well as being ideally suited for any preferred seasonings may be added during distance hauling where high ed.

Stewart trucks are sold locally by T. E. Douglas.

Japan's Prettiest

This is Miss Fumiko Suzuki, twenty years old, who has been chosen as the most beautiful girl in Japan. She won over more than six hundred contestants for the honor. Miss Suzuki is an actress.

After an apple pie is baked, lay this slices of cheese over the top, and put in a very moderate oven until the cheese is melted. Serve at once while the cheese is warm.

Hot roast beef sandwiches are made by toasting slices of bread on one side, spreading the toasted side with butter, and placing slices of cold roast beef between, next to the toasted sides of the bread. Now toast the outside of each sandwich, place on hot plates, pour hot gravy over each sandwich, and garnish with a sprig of parsley and a pickle.

Meat loaf or roll is an economical meat dish. Some of the cheaper cuts can be used in making it. All that is not eaten hot is useful for cold slices, sandwiches, or hash. Any lean meat may be used. Allow a medium-sized meat loaf or roll to stand until smooth. Allow the cornstarch mixture to cook in the double boiler for 10 minutes, remove from the fire, add a teaspoon butter, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt, 2 egg yolks, beaten, and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon vanilla. Fill the crust, which should have been prebaked, with the chocolate mixture and cover the top with a meringue made of 2 egg whites beaten stiffly, and 2 tablespoons of sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon vanilla and a pinch of salt. Bake the pie in a very slow oven for about 20 minutes or until the meringue is delicately browned.
